Pay Rate: City of Canandaigua's 2023 starting salary: $85,810/yr

Vacancy: This examination is being held to establish an Eligible List to fill future vacancies in this title, which may occur during the life of the Eligible List. An eligible may receive only one Permanent appointment from this Eligible List. If an eligible accepts a Contingent-Permanent appointment their name will be removed from the Eligible List only for the department or agency in which she/he received the Contingent-Permanent appointment. Once appointed, there will be a probation period of 8 to 26-weeks based on performance of duties.

Minimum Qualifications: Immediately preceding the examination date, candidates must possess Permanent Competitive status for two (2) years as a Police Officer in accordance with Section 58 of Civil Service Law which 6 months must be with the City of Canandaigua Police Department.

Special Requirement for Appointment: Possession of a valid New York State Operator's license at the time of appointment, and maintenance of such license throughout the tenure of employment in the position.

Special Requirement for Permanent Appointment: A person appointed as a Police Sergeant must complete a course for first line supervisory police officers as required by Section 209-q of the General Municipal Law.

Anticipated Eligibility: Applicants who lack thirty days, or less, of meeting the minimum qualifications by the date of the examination will be admitted conditionally to the examination. However, proof of the additional days' qualifications must be submitted prior to the establishment of the eligible list.

Job Description: An employee in this class is responsible for the police work of subordinates or for specialized duties which he/she personally performs. A Police Sergeant implements procedures and policies according to the directives of the Police Chief or his designate and departmental operating procedures. Supervision is exercised over the police officers through inspections and the assignment of duties in accordance with general instructions received from a superior officer. Does related work as required.

Subjects of Examination: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

1. Law enforcement methods and practices - These questions test for knowledge of accepted police methods and practices and/or their application to situations in the police field. The questions are a sampling of the various knowledge that police personnel may be required to possess in the course of their day-to-day work-related activities.

2. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

3. Understanding and interpreting written material - These questions test how well you comprehend written material. You will be provided with brief reading selections and will be asked questions about the selections. All the information required to answer the questions will be presented in the selections; you will not be required to have any special knowledge relating to the subject areas of the selections.

4. Preparing written material in a police setting - These questions test for the ability to prepare the types of reports that police personnel write. Some questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately. They consist of restatements of information given in note form. You must choose the best version from each set of four choices. Other questions test for the ability to organize paragraphs. They consist of paragraphs with their sentences out of order. For each of the paragraphs you must choose, from four suggestions, the best order of the sentences.

5. New York State Laws – Police - These questions test for knowledge of the laws in effect on January 1, 2023 that law enforcement personnel may encounter in the course of their day-to-day work-related activities. The questions are a sampling of job-related sections of the Penal Law, Criminal Procedure Law, Vehicle and Traffic Law, Family Court Act and other laws relevant to law enforcement in New York State.

Test guide: A Guide for the Written Test for Police Supervisors/Investigators is available at the New York State website: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>.
